Life Group Discussion Questions

1. Have someone share what the gospel message actually is to start the discussion time.
2. How does the story shared from Richard Wurmbbrand about the man whose final request to his wife was to love the people that killed him change the way you love the people that God has placed in your life?
3. How can you be a first-hand witness of the gospel to your family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers?
4. Pastor Rich lists some things that he does to be a witness to the people around him. Pray, notice people around you, serve, listen, wonder out loud, share your story. Which one of these do you feel would be a next step for you in your witness? How would you go about doing that?
5. Based on #3 in the outline above, what is your comfort zone? What are ways you need to step out of your comfort zone for gospel witness?
