

LIFE GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Follow Me: A Series in Discipleship

These questions are for the July 12, 2026 message, "Discipleship: Stir Up One Another."
Please read the sermon passage (Hebrews 10:24-25) aloud together to set the context for our study.

Passage Outline

When the church gathers on Sunday morning, we stir one another up to love and good works through:

- Singing
- Fellowship
- Preaching the Word
- Prayer

Life Group Discussion Questions

1. As we consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, let's first consider how each one of us is "provoked" as individuals. How do you respond when you are corrected or provoked?
2. Follow up question from the first question, who in your life can you take correction from and actually receive it in a productive way?
3. How can you prepare yourself to be encouraged or exhorted by others?
4. What parts of church (Sunday morning gatherings) are uncomfortable for you?
5. What parts are encouraging or comforting?
6. What's one or two ways you can prepare yourself to be ready for church (singing, fellowshiping, hearing from God's word, etc)?
7. Does anyone want to share a personal goal for fellowshiping during our Sunday morning gatherings?
